

Nathan T. McFall

Nathan McFall, born in Suitland, Maryland, has been using his anointed voice and God given talent to sing and play the piano, electrifying audiences since the age of one. Singing with his teacher, his Aunt Shirley, in church and with the Shirley Ables Music Ministry was the beginning of his career. He was annually invited to sing at the Rayburn Building for the U.S House of Representatives in Washington DC for Senator Claude Peppers, representative of Florida. Nathan McFall has recorded with several artists, performed on radio, television and in concerts halls locally, nationally and internationally. He has also performed in Barbados West Indies and for the United Nations' World Peace Conference in 1995.

Nathan McFall has been the Minister of Music for several churches since the age of twelve. In 1998, during his senior year of high school, he was recognized and presented a Musicianship Award for organizing the first Gospel Choir at Riverdale Baptist School. In August 2001 to 2005 he was the Music Director for Bowie State University's Gospel Choir. In 2003 he was recognized as one of the musician for Shirley Ables and the Joy Gospel Singers who were inducted into the Gospel Music Hall of Fame in Detroit, Michigan. Recently, he has accepted his call into the ministry of preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

He has taken courses at Morris College in Sumter, SC, Wake Tech University in NC and will be receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree from Bowie State University in 2018. Nathan McFall was the Minister of Music for 7 years at Union Bethel AME Church in Brandywine, MD under the leadership of Bishop Harry L. Seawright. He is presently the Minister of Music at Emanuel Baptist Church in Washington DC under the leadership of Pastor Christopher L. Nichols. He's been a faithful member of Macedonia Baptist Church in SE, Washington, DC for ten years, where Rev. Garfield Burton is pastor.

In obedience to God's command, he has been using his gifts to teach, and train voices for the edifying of Gods people for Kingdom building. He acknowledges, The Scripture that inspires and helps to carry him over, along with the many prayers of family and friends is, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Matthews 6:33). To God be the glory for the things He has done!
